

We would like to draw the attention of the scientific and professional community, as well as students and the wider public, to the international peer-reviewed World Leisure Journal (WL Journal), published by Taylor & Francis, which is the official journal of the World Leisure Organization. The journal offers a broad spectrum of discussion on critical leisure research and theory. It publishes empirical and theoretical research essays and critical thinking on recreation, arts, culture, sport, events, health and fitness, travel, and tourism. The current Editor-in-Chief of the journal is Sandro Carnicelli (University of the West of Scotland, United Kingdom), Editorial Assistant: Nerea Rojas (World Leisure Organization Secretariat, Spain), Associate Editors: Adele Doran (Sheffield Hallam University), Book Editors: Brianna Wyatt (Oxford Brookes University), and Marco van Leeuwen (Breda University of Applied Sciences).

We would like to express our sincere thanks to the Editor-in-Chief, Prof. Sandro Carnicelli PhD. as well as to the entire editorial team for their professional expertise and high-quality work carried out throughout the year.

Further information about the journal is available at the website:

<https://www.worldleisure.org/journal>

The current issue can be found on the website:

<https://www.tandfonline.com/toc/rwle20/current>

prof. PaedDr. Elena Bendíková, PhD.
member of the editorial board of the WLJ